

The Virgin Real Life Varg (Thulean Perspectives)

has no real job doesn't make black metal anymore, lost all interests since 1994 doesn't like chocolate milk refuses to pay the compensation for the arsons makes a new video to rant about a movie he says he won't even bother watching every few days (also pls buy Myfarog) secretly listens to Scorpions has to record vlogs in his car at night is upset because the way they portray him killing his friend is bad

THE CHAD FAT JEWISH VARG (From Lords of Chaos)

eats cereal with corpse paint thats literally line up to get laid with him does a Skeletor laugh every time he burns down a church has a 0.5 second penis flash on screen chunky, unlike his scrawny real life counterpart enjoys choccy milk while stabbing Euronymous probably stabbed him more times than in real life his mere existence is a mockery to real life Varg

Varg is salty because the film didn't portray him accurately

Jeffry Hunzong Lepcha The movie was too corny!!...Failed to capture the musical perspective of the Genre instead toiled too much on the dramatised version of the characters
